From the Presidents

Dear Friends,

The last month was a resounding success as we saw great enthusiasm and joie de vivre at IWA's Got Talent! Thank you all for participating and making IWA vibrant and dynamic. The greatest strength of IWA is that members actively engage and generously contribute with deep affection and care for the organization.

This month has a brilliant weeklong finale celebration and we hope to see you as we bring our silver jubilee year to a fabulous end.

We have truly enjoyed our partnership as your Presidents and made memories to last a lifetime! In particular, we would like to make special mention of the Executive Committee, which is the backbone of IWA. We could not have done our best without the complete support of our wonderful Board and Activity Chairpersons. Without you, our dear Activity Chairpersons, there would be no meetings, and indeed no IWA. This has been a combined, collaborative and connected effort, resulting in another outstanding year.

Our warm thanks to Rani Ananth for maintaining the blog and to the members of the Advisory, Election, Membership and Music Committees for their valuable support and guidance.

Our best wishes to Ramani and Vijaya for a glorious year ahead. We look forward to being Forever Connected. Forever Learning. Forever Inspired.

Fondly,
And for the last time,

NINA KOTHARI

The Secretaries:

Nita & Priya: Mailing newsletters and meticulous in writing meeting minutes. Friendly and ever willing to work, with your enthusiasm and willingness to embrace new ideas, long hours became enjoyable. Your contribution helped make "The IWA Story" a masterpiece and your role in the flawless execution of the silver jubilee celebration weeks is truly commendable.

The Treasurers:

Meetings hosted by Nina Kothari and Cherry Venkatesan

From the Secretaries

As the curtains down on a landmark IWA year, we the Secretaries would like to state at the outset that's it has been an intense but extremely fun-filled year. We have become so accustomed to documenting our monthly and other sundry meetings that we will have to resist the urge to whip out a pen and paper at every occasion in our normal lives! Also, at least one of us will have an eager seven year old son with withdrawal symptoms from sticking labels on newsletters. In all seriousness, it has been an enjoyable experience as we worked together cohesively as a close-knit team. We've had to stay nimble and burn the midnight oil on occasion but the results have been well worth it. Our thanks go to the Managing Committee and to the Activity Chairpersons for their support and great camaraderie. Our thanks also go to the Membership Committee for their guidance and advice throughout the year. Finally, a big thank you to the members at large whose constant encouragement made this year a terrific one!

NITA REDDY

PRIYA ASOKAN

From the Treasurers

At first it seemed a daunting task to handle the accounts but I must say that I have enjoyed my term and understood the real pulse of IWA. I have seen first hand how the valuable support and generosity of the members has been the tribute that has made the Silver Jubilee Year unforgettable. Thank you for opening your hearts and your homes. Nina and Cherry have lovingly nurtured IWA and they brought out the best in all of us. Many thanks go to the Activity Chairpersons for meticulously presenting the accounts and for their friendship through the year. I must add that, like the camaraderie at IWA, the accounts too are strong and healthy.

Members showed their enthusiasm by attending so many meetings that maintaining the attendance list became an easy task!

A warm welcome and good luck to the new Committee as we remain: Forever Connected. Forever Learning. Forever Inspired.
