From the Presidents

Dear Friends,
Shubh Arambh!

Thank you for the profusion of Purple! Ladies, your enthusiasm, energy and elegance added the perfect zing to our first IWA Morning.

We thank the Managing and Executive Committees without whose unstinting efforts the Fellowship meeting could not have been such a wonderfully enjoyable morning.

The trip to Myanmar has been planned from the 19th to the 28th of September, 2012. We are overwhelmed by the tremendous interest expressed by those of you who have endorsed our choice of destination for this year’s sojourn.

The Music Committee this year is chaired by Uma Ganesan and will be ably supported by Vijaya Balasubramaniam, Pushpa Lakshman and Marina Mathias. We wish them all the very best in their endeavour to select the most promising talent for this year’s Music Day felicitation.

Founders Day, which falls on the 25th of July, is our most prestigious event this month and we want you all to share our pride in celebrating the pioneering spirit of our wonderful Founders as well as our past Presidents who have ensured that IWA sustains and thrives!

Ladies, we have an exciting line up of meetings for you this month. As a courtesy to the speakers, please do not get up and leave while the meeting is still in progress. Your cooperation in this regard is greatly appreciated.

Yours in IWA,

RAMANI REDDY

The World through the eyes of an Artist

Parvathi Nayar is a well known artist who has exhibited worldwide. She set up her art studio in Chennai about four years ago when she moved here from Singapore. Conceptually, her work is rooted in exploring relationships with the world, in ways that encourage viewers to see the world they thought they knew, in new ways.

Using her own art as a jump off point, Ms. Nayar will talk about aspects of being a “contemporary, Indian, woman artist”, the nature of contemporary art practices and its appreciation, her relocation to India and her experience engaging with the art scene here and whether gender plays a role in art historically and in the present.

The artist will be in conversation with Deborah Thiagarajan.

We thank Sulochana Alexander, Fakhira Ayer and Gita Chandrasekaran for hosting the meeting.

We thank Zainab Kachwalla for being our day facilitator.

A Different Slice

Engineer turned owner, Chef Sandesh Reddy's latest venture is very unlike a Domino's or a Pizza Hut. Italian flavours with strong traditional roots incorporating local ingredients and taste, testifies that Fresca thrives on surprise. Serving only thin crust pizza and paying attention to detail, be it a "Veg. Gathering" with makhani, pickled vegetables, baby corn and mozzarella or their special "Tandoori Chicken Pizza" demonstrates their eagerness to be different. Learn the art of handmade pizza at Fresca.

We have to limit this meeting to 40 members. Please warn in with Chris Bomstad at 9840084158 from July 2nd to July 5th between 11am and 5pm.

Wealth from Waste

Reduce, reuse and recycle today for a better tomorrow. Composting is an easy cost effective way to convert trash into a resource.

The Daily Dump, an organization started by 3 women from Bangalore has evolved into a movement to manage household waste and convert it into high quality compost. By composting, you will be doing a huge service to your planet and your descendants by helping keep tons of garbage out of landfills and toxic poisons out of water, air and soil.

Ms. Navneeth Raghavan a clone (i.e. she has used the open source designs of Daily Dump to manufacture and sell the terracotta pots at her store) of the Daily Dump will speak to us on this subject and will also demonstrate how trash is converted into compost.

We thank Maureen Murari and Kamala Muthiah for graciously hosting the meeting.

We thank Bilkis Moosa for being our day facilitator.

Corruption & Black Money – National and Global Scenario

A KPMG survey indicated that “51 per cent respondents expressed apprehension that rising corruption will make India less attractive for foreign investments” and a whopping “90% believe corruption in India will keep markets volatile.” For every 1% rise in corruption, there is a 11% per capita reduction in FDI flow.

Black money and Corruption are physically interlinked. They are presently an integral part of several economies world over. In India they have much more influence and are deeply rooted in all spheres of life.

Swaminathan Gurumurthy, popularly known as a writer and journalist in India, is a chartered accountant by profession and a corporate advisor of high standing. Highly rated for his investigative writing, he has ceaselessly campaigned against corruption at high places.

The meeting is sponsored by Sudha Shivkumar.

We thank Shirley Verghese for being our day facilitator.

The Lesser Known Gods of the Hindu Pantheon

The Hindu pantheon has Gods for vegetation, Gods for weather, Gods for nature, Gods for geographical areas, Gods for villages, Gods for the house, Gods in the temples, Gods in running water, Gods in the deepest forest and on icy mountain heights. There is no situation, environment and place that do not have a God. Gods inspire, Gods infuse art and creativity and Gods provoke destruction too. There is indeed an order and structure behind this apparent endless profusion of divinity.

Dr. Chitra Madhavan, author and eminent research scholar in the fields of history and archeology, will focus on the lesser known aspects, the more intriguing aspects and the spiritually valuable aspects of some of these manifestations of the divine.

We thank our sponsors Saranya Jayakumar, Rajni Sabherwal, Neena Sanghavi, Daksha Sheth and Rukku Seshasayee.

We thank Rani Chandani for being our day facilitator.

Burnt Shadows: A Saga of Interwoven Lives

Kamila Shamsie is a Pakistani American novelist who has won several international awards for her novels. Her fifth novel Burnt Shadows was the winner of the Anisfield-Wolf Book Award and was short listed for the Orange Prize for Fiction.

Burnt Shadows is the story of Hiroko Tanaka whose life is destroyed by the Hiroshima bombing of 1945. Moving and mesmerizing, it traces the shared histories of two families, from the final days of the Second World War in Japan and India on the brink of partition in 1947, to Pakistan in the early 1980s, New York in the aftermath of 11 September and Afghanistan in the wake of the ensuing U.S. bombing. Sweeping in its scope, Burnt Shadows is an epic narrative with an astonishing climax.

Radhika Mohan, content writer, freelance writer and developer of websites will lead the discussion.

We thank Cherry Venkatesan for graciously hosting the meeting.

We thank Lakshmi Menon for being our day facilitator.
