Thank you for participating in great numbers for our Fellowship Morning. It was a vibrant and colourful event and it was good to see so many people joining in the fun and games. A big thank you also to our Managing and Executive committees who ensured we got the year off to a flying start.

We now look ahead to September when we have an exciting trip to Japan planned from September 4th to September 12th. We are encouraged to have had such a positive response from everyone on our choice of destination.

The Music Committee this year is chaired by Rani Ananth, ably supported by Usha Chandrakumar, Jyothi Ganesh and Dominique Rastoin. We wish them all the best in their endeavors in selecting a young talented musician to felicitate on Music Day.

“All the World’s a Stage....”

The work of Sriram Ayer’s organization NalandaWay, exemplifies the Shakespearean expression –

“All the world’s a stage, and all the men and women merely players”.

Through performance, music, and dance, our speaker gives children in India’s poorest districts a powerful platform in which to express their life experiences. In his enthralling presentation, he will highlight the profound transformations of underprivileged children via performance and music. Moreover, we will be graced with a short performance showcasing the children’s many talents.

Home baking – cream cheese and mango cheesecake

You often hear of actors with Medical degrees and writers with an Engineering degree. At an age when your educational qualification does not necessarily have a bearing on your career path, Cindana Manickavel has used her degree in Public Relations to carve a niche for herself as a home baker.

Despite the wide range of desserts she bakes, her cheesecakes, homemade cream cheese and dessert jars have always been her specialty. Cindana will be showing us how to make a mango cheesecake using easy to prepare cream cheese.

We thank Saranya Jayakumar and Renuka Ishwariah for sponsoring this meeting.

We thank Reena Verghese for being our day facilitator.

The psychological well-being of a multitasking woman

Women's mental health is assuming great importance today in the scenario of the increasing violence against women, their multiple roles and responsibilities, the resultant stress and the demands made on them on a daily basis.

Dr.R.Thara Srinivasan a psychiatrist by training with a PhD in Disability in Schizophrenia is our renowned speaker for the day. She is the founder member director of the NGO Schizophrenia Research Foundation (SCARF), devoted to the cause of mental health in India. Amongst her numerous accolades she is responsible for the development of the 'Indian Disability Evaluation & Assessment Scale' (IDEAS) which has been acknowledged by the Govt. of India as the official tool to measure psychiatric disability. She is one of the very few Indians who have been conferred the Hon. Fellowship of the Royal College of Psychiatry, UK.

The Americans: a novel

Just out from HarperCollins India's literary imprint, Fourth Estate, is this intriguingly named novel by Chennai-based novelist Chitra Viraraghavan. Here's your chance to find out who the Americans are in this "smashing debut", as critics are calling it. Viraraghavan's novel is set entirely in the United States, and tells the stories of ten different characters, of different ages, backgrounds, ethnicity, gender and class, whose lives are linked through an eleventh character, Tara, who travels to America from Chennai. Full of drama, and rising at times to the level of a thriller, "The Americans" is a thought-provoking book that anyone who has friends or relatives in the United States will identify with and enjoy. Be there to catch Chitra in conversation with our new IWA member - Sabina Narayan.

We thank Sheetal Parakh for so graciously opening her lovely home for this meeting.

We thank Rathi Nilakantan for being our day facilitator.

Please note :Entry into Harrington Road is via Poonamalle High Road and left after Pachiappas College.

Trip to Japan

Japan is one of the most popular travel destinations in the world; a unique blend of traditional and modern, where temples and historic buildings co-exist alongside modern achievements in architecture and technology. Visitors can immerse themselves in Japanese history and culture one day and get a glimpse of the future through technological developments the next. Many of the historical sites are still used for their original purposes while remaining open to the public. The natural beauty of Japan can also be enjoyed all year round.

The places included in the IWA tour are :

Hiroshima

Hiroshima has been the principal city of the Chugoku Region for hundreds of years. After its construction in the 16th century, Hiroshima Castle was the most formidable fortification for miles. Today, Hiroshima is a vibrant city and home to over a million inhabitants.

When the first atomic bomb was dropped over Hiroshima on August 6, 1945, the city became known worldwide for this unenviable distinction.

Itsukushima Shrine is a Shinto shrine on the island of Itsukushima (popularly known as Miyajima) in the city of Hatsukaichi in Hiroshima Prefecture in Japan. It is a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Osaka

With a population of 2.5 million, Osaka is Japan's third largest and second most important city. It has been the economic powerhouse of the Kansai region for many centuries.

Kyoto

Kyoto was Japan's capital and the emperor's residence from 794 until 1868. It is now the country's seventh largest city with a population of 1.4 million people and a modern face.

Nara

Japan's first permanent capital was established in the year 710 at Heijo, the city now known as Nara. It remains full of historic treasures, including some of Japan's oldest Buddhist temples.

Hakone

Lake Ashi (Japanese: Ashinoko) was formed in the caldera of Mount Hakone after the volcano's last eruption 3000 years ago. Today, the lake with Mount Fuji in the background is the symbol of Hakone. Hakone is part of the Fuji-Hakone-Izu National Park, less than 100 kilometers from Tokyo. Famous for hot springs, outdoor activities, natural beauty and the view of nearby Mt. Fuji.

Tokyo

Tokyo is Japan's capital and the country's largest city. Prior to 1868, Tokyo was known as Edo. A small castle town in the 16th century, Edo became Japan's political center in 1603. Now Edo has grown into one of the world's most populous cities.

As a tourist, it's all about Japanese culture. From the castles, temples and shrines, the authentic restaurants and festivals, experiencing Japanese culture is the number one reason for coming to Japan.

Japan is also one of the foremost technologically advanced countries in the world. To experience this technology for ourselves we will be taking a ride on the bullet train, at 300km/h or more, where it feels more like air travel than rail travel.

We will enjoy some of the delicious, world famous Japanese food, as well as other well known cuisines to ensure we tickle our tastebuds!

So, ladies come, join us and decide for yourself the best things about this wonderful country. Whether it be the hot springs, the breathtaking view of Mount Fuji, or watching the graceful Geisha ladies dance, there is sure to be something that will linger in your memory long after the return to namma Chennai.
